

How the River Feels.....

By: Jessie Westphall

Has anyone ever stopped and wondered
How the river feels...
Never stopping around that bend
Keep on going until the end

But the end is the beginning
And the beginning is the start
It keeps on flowing
Never ending

No ones ever asked it
Asked it how it feels

But if they did
I bet it would say

I am tired some days
And excited another
Storms make me angry
Sun makes me mellow

I love the humans
I hate their trash

why has no one done that?
Ask how the river feels

The end is the beginning
The beginning is the start
Is that how the river feels?
