

Forever in blue

Midnight
Blue velvet,
Spun across the open sky,
Reflected in the glassy plane,
Tears in a brilliant blue eye.
Caressing the shore.
Scintillation upon the surface.
A window locked to those who pass by,
Open to those who stop
And lay eyes on the hypnotizing beauty.
Spun gold entwined in icy ripples.
Seeping into broken dreams.
Healing.
Icy fingers finding the way,
Twisting through mountains.
Bridges pass over,
Another land under
Eyes seeing the way.
Day and night
A gateway to the unknown,
Adventure.
You'll find me there,
Forever in blue.
