

French Broad River Acrostic Poem

By Ivy Anderson, Jack Yeiser, Owen Britt, Milo Bannasch, and Grant Scheewe

Asheville Montessori School Kindergarten (Julia St.)

Teacher: Marcia Whiting March 31, 2011

Fish swim in the water.

River is flowing,

Entertaining us,

Not dirty.

Chairs with people relaxing in them,

Having picnics.

Boats, all different kinds.

River is wet!

Oak trees along the side.

Amazing animals.

Dogs on leashes and swimming.

Ripples going along.

Interesting things to find.

Vacation time on the shore of the river.

Everyone is fishing.

Rowboats are floating by.